morning. Lorraine added a mtg. to your calendar at 11:30am - BlueChip + Android Share. It's over the last half of Android Auto Monthly. Can you step out of Auto?

out

hi, I saw that... am thinking about which one to prioritize. It's not essential in the Lorraine mtg, but I also can probably step out halfway through the Auto mtg

ok

BTW, I ran out of time with Christian Stainger in our 8:30 meeting. Would you be able to set up additional time for me with him next week? He's in Germany, FYI. LMK if you need his contact info. Thx ok, will work to get more time

• Jamie Rosenberg, 2020-08-13 09:30:33

thank you

the Gleads prep mtgs. can happen this Friday...but not back to back. one at 9am, the other at 11:30am. Are you ok with that?

• Jamie Rosenberg, 2020-08-13 09:32:57

yes, that's fine... if we have flexibility on sequencing it would be great if Android Share can be first... but we can work with any sequencing

ok

• Jamie Rosenberg, 2020-08-13 10:29:21

FYI, I will drop out of the Auto mtg at 11:30 and join the Lorraine update

ok

Also, note that I've blocked my calendar from ~3 p.m. on tomorrow... trying to get out for a few holes of golf if I can keep that protected. :) Would you be able to move my 1:1 with Samer to earlier in the day and/or early next week? Thanks

• Jamie Rosenberg, 2020-08-13 10:30:26

Note that "Samer" is a different person from "Sameer" :)

good to note they are different, thank you

I'll protect that time. My husband is the same way, any chance to play golf. He's playing Baylands tomorrow afternoon.

I'm going to play Shoreline -- as many holes as I can get in with a 4 p.m. tee time.

sounds like fun!

One more thing: There's an external exec meeting with Facebook happening next week. Hiroshi would like me to join. Can you please coordinate with Tracey to get it on my calendar? Thanks

you bet

Hi, I just noticed something. Our "SODA project review" hour from 1-2 is meant to be a placeholder on the leads' calendars, and then we schedule in topics. It looks like the only topic is Tablets from 1:30 -2, so I think we can open up the 1-1:30 slot for everyone. Would you mean just shortening the "SODA project review" calendar item to 1:30 - 2 p.m. for today only? Thanks one more thing (and hopefully this is all for today)... could you please add another 30 min for me with Anna for 5 p.m. today? Thx

yes
